Gentlemen's Gold

Stem-Winding

WATCHES,

$15.

This unprecedented offer, coming as it does from our well known and reliable establishment is the greatest drive ever offered to the Washington public.

What the Watch is for $15.

A genuine American movement. Elgin make, full jeweled escapement, pendant stemwinder and setter, compensated Chronometer balance wheel and patent safety pinions, warranted to keep accurate time, and fully guaranteed by us. The case is made of solid gold, which is stiffened with a sheet of composition metal placed between the inner and outer lining so as to impart greater firmness and durability, and also to prevent denting, and is warranted for ten years.

Who cannot afford a Gold Watch at $15?

We sell a solid Gold American Stemwinding Watch for $22 in Ladies' size, hunting case. Cents' size with either Elgin or Waltham stemwinding movement, hunting case. $28.

THE SMALL THINGS OF A DAY.

THE TAX LIENS DEEDS.

An Effort to Compel the Recorder to Change the Date.

Hough, Meyer & Co. have been awarded a trifling sum of the base ball grounds for the coming season.

An order was issued yesterday by the commissioners that hereafter permit work shall only be paid for on its completion.

Washington Diamond's wife have sold to Alice D. Maguire, for $800, lots 19, 20, and 21 in subdivision of original lot 10 in square 28.

Realty leasees were yesterday granted to James Fortune Joseph Roth, and E. T. Roth, recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia, to compel him to change the dates of the deeds in controversy between himself and the parties to the action.

The petition first to file that chapter 63 of the acts of the forty-fifth Congress, approved April 29, 1878, provides among other things, that any instrument of writing which by law is entitled to be recorded, may be filed with the records of the District of Columbia, shall take effect and be valid as to subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration, without notice, from the time when such instrument is delivered to the recorder for record, and that the recorder is bound to record it, and the said record is, by the said act, entitled to be given preference over all other instruments.

James Ward, colored, was admitted to the bar court yesterday on the charge of having broken his leg in the shop of George W. Johnson, 11th and 12th Streets.

Samuel Ross was accepted as a notary in circuit court No. 1 yesterday to fill the vacancy in the panel, and E. B. Coffey was exonerated from his service to the court in circuit court No. 1.

Clinton Beckwith and John V. Quackenbush have purchased of George Emmett and Wm. Kettler trustees of the estate of the late James G. Green, deceased, the business of James G. Green & Son, 11th and 12th Streets.

The case of Captain Augustus C. Smith, of the 11th Cavalry, against the District of Columbia, was referred to the trial term of the circuit court.

The trial term of the circuit court, which opened yesterday, adjourned to Monday morning.
